Dear Anne,

You are receiving this letter and a copy of the affidavit sent to Governor Green because you are a member of the governor's cabinet. Please be aware that Governor Green has violated the Constitution and perjured his oath of office numerous times. He is being asked to step down from office.

You are being notified that you are required, pursuant to your oath of office, to stop and correct the unconstitutional actions committed by Governor Green, under your watch, and remove Governor Green from office. If you fail to act, then, you support, abet and condone Governor Green's actions committed under your supervision. Therefore, by your unconstitutional support of Governor Green and his unconstitutional actions, you have invoked the self-executing Sections 3 & 4 of the 14th Amendment, thus, have lawfully vacated your office and forfeited any benefits thereof, including salaries and pensions.

You are an elected official who has taken an oath to defend and support both the Constitution of the United States of America and the Constitution of Hawaii. Please honor your oath of office.

The original organic Constitution for the United States of America, circa 1787 as amended with The Bill of Rights in 1791, established the United States of America as a Constitutional Republic and this Constitution as the supreme Law of the Land. The Constitution is superseded by nothing, which includes State laws, mandates, statues or other.
